Miners Seek Support To Combat Disease

WASHINGTON (AP) - Or. ganizers of a miners' rally made their pleas Friday for fed. eral help in combating "black lung" disease before a handful of men instead of the throng they had hoped for.

Dr. I. E. Buff of the Physicians Committee for Miners Health and Safety, the Charleston, W. Va., organization which set up the Independence Day rally, accused the United Mine Workers Union of keeping its members away.

Buff had said 1,000 miners from five states were expected for the session on the steps of the Jefferson Memorial. About 30 retired Pennsylvania miners afflicted with the disease showed up.

The men and a few of their wives sat impassively in the broiling, 85-degree sumshine while Buff delivered a 40-minute speech attacking the union, the states and the industry. He accused all of blocking adequate compensation and safety laws for coal miners.

"Thomas Jefferson said all men are created equal. Somewhere, somehow, someplace they forgot the coal miner-the union and non-union," said Buff. He said more miners were killed in the last 60 years than soldiers in the Korean and Viet.

ter," he said.

"This is not a demand per. formance. We are only appealing to the United States to do two things,"

He urged passage of a $125. per-month miners' pension bill and a tough mine health-andsafety law.

Such a proposed law is in committees in the House and Senate with chances good it will pass before the summer is out.

Buff, who called 40,000 miners out of the pits despite union opposition last February to press successfully for black lung compensation law in West Virginia, noted attendance at the capital rally was small.

"Part of this is due to the fact that one of the unions asked the men not to come because it was not running the show," he said.

Independence Hall Place To Be on Fourth of July

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Boggs, of Macon, Ga., like thousands about them, stood solemnly in front of Independence Hall Friday because "it just seemed to be the place to be on the Fourth of July."

There also were people from Fresno, Calif., and Waco, Tex., and Little Rock, Ark., and hundreds of other communities from throughout the country.

They had shrugged off the heat and had abandoned opportunities to escape to the seashore or the country to seek their heritage. 'There doesn't seem to be too

As Skelton finished, the bells in the tower of Independence Hall struck noon as spectators maintained a reverent silence. "My gosh," Skelton said a lit-tle later, "this was something."

Lions Club Continues Its Cemetery Project

On Tuesday night, July 1, some 20 or more Lions Club members and several interested and ambitious young fellows put in a long evening of hard work in the Old Cemetery. Each one came armed with more equipment than he alone, could use, and there were several wheel barrows and a power lawn mow-

Bob Schwab, incoming president, hauled two dump trucks of top soil and dumped it at the worst low spots that needed to be leveled before seed. ing could be done. This was the biggest undertaking of the evening but most of the soil had been spread by the time we left the site.

Some came with hedge clippers and made short work of some of the weeds which have sprung up since the last work bee. Armed with a weed killer spray and pump, Art King wielding the hose and Walt McKown and Tom Hoffman working the spray pump, covered the whole area around the iron fence where it was impossible to cut out the weeds since they grew through the fence.

The most welcome and hard working guest was the Rev. Robert Zorn who rolled in on his motor bike, shovel strapped to its side. He soon demonstrated that he can wield a mean shovel as well as preach a fine sermon.

We took the time to closely examine the one vault in the cemetery which is at the far end of the south east corner with the head stone wired to a large tree. This stone is large and elaborate with a carved angel in flight at the top and an epitaph at the base which we were unable to read since it is quite covered with bits of moss and small lichens. The headstone bears the name of Mary Lucetta, wife of John W. Potter, M.D. born 1826 died 1860. At the foot of the cement enclosure which is the length of an ordinary grave, is a footstone with just Mary Lucetta on it. There is no evidence of a cover for the vault and the inclosure is overgrown with weeds, however, if these are removed a cover may be discovered. The walls of the inclosure are about four inches thick.

We have checked through all of the historical notes we have on the early doctors in this area, and thus far have not found the name of a Doctor John W. Potter, The earliest For Day Camp

Sutton Hill Plans Work Bee

A second meeting in the form of a work bee has been called by those interested in restor. ing the old Sutton Hill cemetery for Sun. July 13 at 1 p.m.

The men are asked to take garden tools and saws to remove the low-hanging branches of the trees, all of which are to be left standing. It is hoped that the old area of the cemetery can be completely cleaned up, and if possible to secure more land to enlarge the cemetery as there have been requests for lots. The present cemetery is now full of lots in use.

The committee asks and begs for more interested persons to attend than were present at the last recent meeting, and to come as early as possible so that much may be accomplished during the work bee.

REFLECTIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Sorenson of Oakland, California have announced the engagement of their daughter, Penny Lynn Sorenson to Gregory Earl Bridges of Oakland. The Sorenson family are former residents of Warren, Mr. Sorenson being employed by the Darling Jewelry Company as a watchmaker for several years. They moved to California in 1955. Penny, a 1969 graduate of Chowchilla Union High School, is a student at Merrit Junior College and employed at the Matilda Brown Home in Oakland. Gregory is the son of Mrs. Christensen of Merced and Verdo Bridges of Fremont. He has served four years with the U.S. Navy and is now employed by the Bekins Moving and Storage Company in Oakland. The couple is planning a September wedding.

And on June 6 the Sorensons also revealed the engagement of another daughter, Bonnie Marie Sorenson to Kenneth Wayne Courtney. Bonnie is a senior at Oakland Technical High School. Ken is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Courtney and is a 1969 graduate of Chowchilla Union High School. He is now employed by the Red Top Standard Station in Merced. Wedding plans for the couple are indefinite.

Gleaned from an area newspaper: A woman motorist deliberately drove her car onto the berm last week to strike and kill a beautiful pheasant. She picked up the bird and drove on. A housewife who had made a pet of the nearly tame pheasant for several days was so angered that she set off in her car in pursuit but lost the chase.

We also read where an area vice president ran his Mercury through a car wash last week with the windows open. He returned to the office soaking wet.

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN: Why are modern parents so foolish? How can they expect their children to know the value of a dollar when allowances are handed out regularly and nothing is expected in return. Not even a "thank you." When I see my grandsons growing up to be loafers it makes me sick. Yet I don't dare say anything because it's not my place.

Please wake up the parents, Ann. Tell them to insist that their kids work after school, and on Saturdays and during summer vacations. They'll be better men and women for it.--

DEAR TIMER: I agree that kids should work, but do you know how hard it is for a teen-ager to find an afterschool job, or summer work only? The labor laws were written many years ago to protect kids against exploitation in sweat shops. These laws should be changed. Today kids NEED to work as a matter of self respect. They need to expend their energies in useful and productive ways. But in most states there are all sorts of restrictions on hiring minors.

So don't put the blame on the parents, Grandpa. There's more to this problem than meets the eye.

DEAR ANN: My wife Ethel just asked me if I was queer. She then handed me a column about men who wear women's underwear. It so happens that I have been wearing Ethel's panties for a long time.

Now hear this: When I was in World War II I ran out of shorts. The Ship's service store was sold out. In desperation I went to the WAVES counter and bought white cotton panties in the largest size. They proved to be so much more comfortable than the broadcloth shorts that I never went back to the men's counter after that.

When I married Ethel I explained this whole thing to her and we never had any discussion about it until now. Of course I've had to be careful in the locker room at the Y for fear of being ridiculed, but I've kept my secret. Am I queer because I put comfort ahead of conformity? What do you think?-Charley

DEAR CHARLEY: I think that somewhere in a men's store you could find shorts that are comfortable. If you wanted to, that is.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I work hard all day and like to get to bed about 9:00 P.M. My wife has fallen into a habit of going over to the neighbor's house after I've gone to bed and sitting there till midnight or even later. The neighbor's husband is in Vietnam. I never gave it a thought until I saw a couple of movies about women liking each other in an unnatural way. Now I worr that something funny might be going on.

My wife is a wonderful mother and our marriage is good, except for this one thing. What are your ideas? - B.H.

Dear B.H.: A wife who is so lonely that she needs to go to the neighbors every night for company is in a bad way. Why don't you suggest that she invite friends in a couple of evenings a week - or go to a movie or visit someone? Your marriage needs a transfusion and it's up to you to provide it, Bub.

Nixon Flies To Bahamas

GRAND CAY, Bahamas (AP)
- President Nixon flew to this tiny British Commonwealth island Friday after participating in a traditional July 4th parade in Florida celebrating America's independence from Britain.

Nixon served as grand marshal for the holiday march in Key Biscayne, Fla., declaring afterward that the turnout of several thousand showed. "The great majority of people haven't lost faith in this country."

The chief executive's wife, Pat, joining him in sweltering heat to watch the colorful and rather quaint parade, declared: "It was such fun. It reminded me of the past,"

Forty members of the Marine band were flown to Key Bis. cayne from Washington to salute Nixon with martial music and the presidential anthem. "Hail to the Chief," They had to fly right back to the capital for an evening appearance there.

After the parade, the Nixons enjoyed a picnic lunch beside their oceanfront home on the key, just off Miami.

Then Nixon flew to Grand Cay for an overnight stay at the hilltop home of Robert Abplenalp, president of Precision Valve Corp. of Bronxville, N.Y. Abplenalp, who has known Nixon since 1960, was on hand to welcome the President, C. G. 'Bebe" Rebozo, banker and real estate operator who perhaps is the chief executive's closestfriend, and White House counsel John D. Ehrlichman.

Participating in the day's activities with the Nixons at Key Biscayne were daughter Julie, her husband, David Eisenhow. er, and Rebozo.

Rockefeller Arrives In Guyana

GEORGETOWN, Guyana (AP) - With scores of potential troublemakers under police detention, Gov. Nelson A. Rocke. feller arrived in this steamy tropical capital Friday near the windup of his Latin-American fact finding mission for President Nixon.

The government crackdown centered on the youth wing of the Marxist . led People's Progressive party.

Prime Minister Forbes Burnham greeted the New York governor on his arrival from Ja. maica for a 19-hour visit.

Along the 25-mile ride into the city. Rockefeller's motorcade passed signs that read: "Welcome, we need your money," and "Aid without strings," few "Rocky go home" posters were visible.

Shortly before Rockefeller's plane touched down, police arrested eight persons, including a Black Muslim leader, among a crowd of 600 that turned out at the airport.

Police took strong security measures to prevent disorders that have plagued other stops on Rockefeller's tour.

Negro Civil Rights Martyrs Honored

JACKSON, Miss. (AP - Ne. gro leaders observed Independ. ence Day here by honoring civil rights martyrs, touring slum areas and posting desegregation demands on the doors of state and federal offices.

"Today, July 4, 193 years after the Declaration of Independ. ence was proclaimed, the black people of Mississippi are still not free," said the statement taped to the doors of two buildings in downtown Jackson.

The action came during the annual convention of the National Association for the Advance. ment of Colored People.

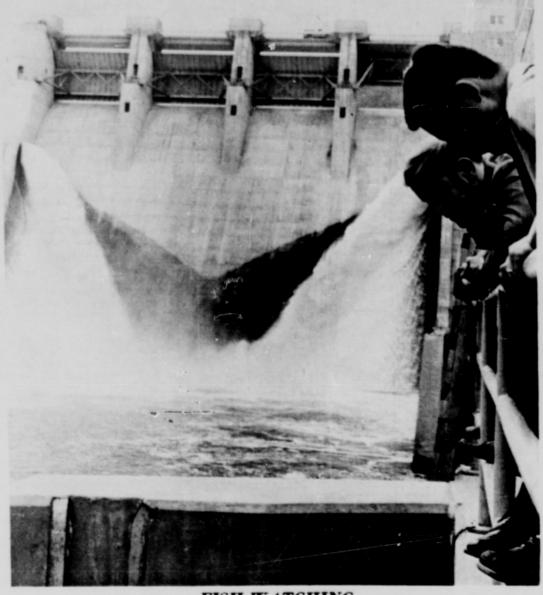

"The responsibility for our opporession must be shared equally between the government of Mississippi and the national government," the statement said, "They are principal violators of the law of the land, whether that law deals with equality in education, fair housing, job opportunity for all or the right to vote."

Posted on the doors of the Post Office. Federal Building and a state office building, the demands included: Appointment of Negroes to draft boards in the state, hiring of Negro agents by the U.S. Department of Justice in Mississippi, improved welfare programs and jobs for Negroes.

In an hour-long tour of Negro slums in 98-degree heat, Mayor elect Charles Evers of Fav. ette, the NAACP state field di. rector and the first black mayor in Mississippi, told newsmen: "We didn't want you to go away thinking everything was roses in Mississippi." At the convention's memorial service for slain heroes of the civil rights struggle, Evers spoke of his brother Medgar, the NAACP field director who was killed by a sniper in Jack. son six years ago. A 4-foot-high marble monument honoring Ev. ers was unveiled by his widow.

Jorge Velasquez, the nation's leading jockey in 1967, got off to a fast start this year by winning 43 races during Hialeah's 40-day meeting. Runnerup Angel Cor-

FISH WATCHING

Fish watching will undoubtedly become a popular sport at the Kinzua Dam tailwaters, Here Michael Basich, of the Department of Com-merce, is joined by John Leopold, (in the fore-ground) landscape architect with the Allegheny National Forest, at the "watching rail" below

the power plant. Basich met Leopold and Rod Larson, recreation director with ANF, during his tour of Kinzua Country last Wednesday with Jack Ewers of the Corps of Engineers. Basich was a guest of the Times-Mirror and Observer.

A Department of Commerce the ever-growing numbers of representative said Wednesday after a tour of the Kinzua Dam and reservoir that he was more than impressed with the potential of Kinzua Country, and that he was satisfied that through his visit here there had been established an adequate line of communication between his department and the tourist indus-

Regarding what he saw, Mi-chael Basich said, "I have traveled throughout Pennsyl. vania gathering data for our calendar of events and for our newsletters, and I can honestly say that nowhere in Pennsyl. vania have I seen an area that has more opportunity for tourist development and promotion than in Kinzua Country."Basich is editor of the calendar of events and newsletters repre- to them by the Corps of Ensenting the "right arm" of the department's activities in protourism in Pennsylmoting

Basich's reply to the inquiry as to how Kinzua Country could be given some recognition in the department's publications was quite simple: "We can't very well tell the people what is going on if we don't know about it," he said, "and that's the reason I am here."

To establish an even better line of communication, Basich said, he would request that the department's photographer work closely with the staff of the Times-Mirror and Observer in assembling a collection of photographs which will best "sell" Kinzua Country.

As a guest of the Times-Mirror and Observer and through the courtesy of the Corps of Engineers, Basich was taken on a tour of the interior of the dam and the power plant by Jack Ewers, reservoir manager, and was then escorted by Ewers on a tour of the reservoir. The tour included an inspection of the newly-opened facilities at Dew Drop on the Kinzua Arm. Basich was told that the Allegheny National Forest had rushed completion of the small boat launching ramp to meet the increasing demands of fishermen and small boat

Basich expressed a particular interest in the boat-in camping areas developed on the shore of the reservoir. He said that he felt this was a real selling point to be used in approaching

Conversational Counselling And Compost

By Bernie Wingert, County Agent

Last Monday morning was hot. and the air hung heavy around the chicken coop, but inside there was plenty of movement! A beautiful big Irish Setter had given birth to a dozen shiny red pups, and they wriggled and squooched around making little pup noises. This accounted for about 10 per cent of the movement, but the real action came when a curious cat jumped in to see what was new. It took that red dog about four trips around the eight by eight coop with the cat only a fraction of an inch ahead to set up a spinning action somewhat similar to a rotary mower. Fortunate. ly for all concerned the cat flew back out the hole, the pups went back to sleep, and the setter started breathing slowly

This action happened at Dave York's Farm on Yankee Bush. Dave's oldest boy owns both the pups Dad and Mother and he's planning on helping to fla nance his first year at Penn State with dog sales. I was up at York's looking at the oats field and talking weed spraying. That's the pleasant thing about county agenting. The diversions of the day include talking with nice families, looking at pups squirm, and watching a proud red dog range ahead through the oats field thinking he's master of all the acres he can see, On top of Yankee Bush you can see pretty far too!

At noon I moved the family camper up to the lake so that the girls in the household could swim and fish during the 4th of July week. One flat tire, four blown fuses, and one empty bottle of gas later, I returned to the office quite exhausted. But untangling snarled fishing lines, baiting hooks, and chasing coons out of the stuff stored under of the week very enjoyable. The main problem seems to have been that I only got to fish twen. ty minutes and sleep four hours. The rest of the time I was either driving back and forth or solve. to a meeting. But the women of the family look pretty well resta

For some counselling now on the subject of insecticides, We're often asked "What is the one best insecticide for controlling garden pests?' There isn't really one best material because not all insects can be controlled by any single insecti-cide. But if you have on hand spray materials containing MA. LATHION, SEVIN, and ROTEN.
ONE you'll be able to control practically any garden insect that's giving you a hard time, These chemicals can be used safely and without fear of undesirable residue problems.

There's only one more thing that I must remind you of and that's - FOLLOW THE LABEL DIRECTIONS, It's very import. ant that any pesticide be used in a sensible fashion. Some people seem to think - "I bought it therefore I'm free to use it however I wish," Just remember that all pesticides are poisons and that the possibility exists that you may harm your. self or others if you don't read

Wise use of pesticides can be compared favorably to the freedom we enjoy in this country. The most important freedom we have of course is freedom of the

Can we wave the Flag too much?

Is it possible to wave the flag too much? Provided, of course, that you wave it with integrity?

Is it possible to study Lincoln or Shakespeare too much? Is it possible to read the Bible too much? The great, the good, the true, are inexhaustible for inspiration, example and strength. I believe that we are not waving our flag enough, not nearly enough to lt seems to me that we are developing a tendency to be timid or even apologetic about waving the stars and stripes. Walk up and down the streets on July 4th and count the flags. It is our nation's birthday, a sacred day in world history, the most important day of America. Why isn't the flag flying on every rooftop and from every home and building? This complacent attitude is strong evidence of cancerous patriotic decay. The flag is a symbol of our national unity. It is the spirit of our undying devotion to our country. It stands for the best that is in us . . . for loyalty, character, and faith in democracy 🔅 Isn't our flag a synonym of the United States of America? Does it not represent man's greatest, noblest, most sublime dream? Is it not the zenith of achievement, the goal to which generations have aspired? $\frac{1}{2}$ Ladies and gentlemen, I believe it is time for us . . . for the mad, rushing Twentieth Century American . . . to stop for a moment and think. Let us arrest our near reverential admiration of material success and return to the spiritual and ethical values. Let us imbue and rekindle in ourselves and our children the so-called oldfashioned way of patriotism, a burning devotion to the principles and ideals upon which our country was founded to Should not every home own and proudly display the colors on holidays and other such occasions? Isn't the flag Patrick Henry, Jefferson, Franklin, Washington, Nathan Hale, Gettysburg and Valley Forge, Paul Revere, Jackson and other great men and women who have given us our heritage? When you look at the flag can't you see the Alamo, Corregidor, Pearl Harbor, The Monitor, The Merrimac, Wake Island, and Korea? Lest we forget, isn't the flag Flanders Field. Bataan, Iwo Jima, Normandy, Babe Ruth and Davy Crockett? The great events of our past and present are wrapped up in our flag 🛱 It is a symbol of this blessed nation, a giant in industry, education and commerce. Millions of fertile square miles, wheatlands, coal mines, steel plants. Our greatest republic, the chosen infant destined to be man's last and remaining hope for suffering humanity, a shining beacon of light, noble and glorious, the haven for the oppressed and persecuted and truly God's gift to mankind $\frac{1}{2}$

That is what the flag means to me. Can we wave it too much? I don't think so.

(AP) - The Minnesota Twins got superb clutch pitching from reliever-turned-starter Bob Miller and ripped four Oakland hurlers for 16 hits Friday for a 10-4 victory over the Athletics in the opener of a showdown three. game series for the American League West Division lead.

The victory pushed the Twins to within four percentage points of the front-running Athletics.

As Yanks, Tribe Split

NEW YORK (AP) - Ken Harrelson put Cleveland ahead with a two-run homer and Juan Pizzaro hurled a five-hitter in his first start of the year as the Indians tripped the New York Yankees 4-1 and salvaged a split of their doubleheader Friday.

The Yankees jumped to a five-run lead in the opener and held on for a 5.4 victory behind Jack Aker's shutout relief pitch. Harrelson, who dropped a pop fly leading to New York's run in the fifth inning, rapped his 11th homer off the foul pole in left field with one out in the seventh after Duke Sims had singled,

The Indians, who had lost five of their last six games, added two more runs in the eighth on Tony Horton's two-run single. Pizzaro, pitching his first complete game since last September, evened his record at 2-2, yielding the only Yankee run on Jake Gibbs' sacrifice fly. Aker relieved and blanked the Indians without a hit for the final 3 2-3 innings. Bosox Take Windup

Hatchery Crew Saves Trout

CORRY - Prompt action by Superintendent Leroy Sorenson and other employes at the Pennsylvania Fish Commission's Corry Hatchery saved thousands of fish, including all brood stock, when a severe electrical storm knocked out power in the area last Friday evening, June 27.

The storm, which hit the Corry area about 7 p.m., caused a power failure which operates pumps at wells supplying water to the entire hatchery complex. Using the one auxiliary pump available, Sorenson and his fish culturists managed to keep some water circulating during the two hours when the normal power supply was shut down. Although many young trout were affected by the disruption in water circulation, the bulk of the fish being reared at the hatchery recovered. Fish Commission officials say the loss will not seriously hinder trout production schedules and that other units in the Commission's statewide hatchery system will be used to make up trout quotas

Sorenson said serious damage was averted by the immediate action taken by the Corry Hatchery staff, all of whom voluntarily reported for duty at the hatchery as soon as the storm hit the area. In commending his men, he emphasized that all of them did not wait for telephone calls or orders but promptly left their homes to return for work

JUST BY LUCK

RIVERTON, Wyo. (AP) -- The Wyoming High School Coaches Association chose Bob Robertson of Laramie as the football coach of the year.

Robertson isn't even a football coach. He's the basketball coach, but when the regular football coach, John Deti Sr., became ill, Robertson took over the reins and coached Laramie to the state championship.

Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars FOR SATURDAY, July 5, 1969.

ARIES (March 21 to April 20)-Even if you have planned ably, it may be a matter of nip and tuck for most of the day. But you won't run into too much difficulty, and you should enjoy the challenge of any unexpected situations which arise. TAURUS (April 21 to May 21)-A slow start could be the RIGHT start now, since preparations for all undertakings must be thorough. Once certain that you're on the right track, however, get going-and keep going! You can accomplish a great GEMINI (May 22 to June 21)-It will take a real down-to-earth attitude to handle some situations this weekend, but you can master them handily. Call on your innate good judgment and understanding of others to help you.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23) -- Don't be distracted from obligations by the frivolous suggestions of others. It will be only too easy to slough off now, to "let things go." Take time to relax when you have earned it.

LEO (July 24 to August 23)-Do not hesitate to advance an unusual idea-or even a brand new policy--IF you have given either proper thought. And so take into consideration the previous plans of associates -- and possible opposition.

VIRGO (August 24 to September 23)-Good planetary influences. Set sights calculatingly on your target, taking past experiences into consideration-and aim straight! Be tactful with associates. Feeling may be running high in some quarters.

LIBRA (September 24 to October 23)-You may encounter some unusual propositions. Investigate them with a view to long-range benefits, and consider whether or not they suit YOUR standards. Some misleading influences prevail.

SCORPIO (October 24 to November 22)-Don't idle away precious hours on this truly auspicious day, but don't drive too hard or fast, either. Team up with those whose interests are similar to your own -- to your mutual benefit.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 to December 21) --Favorable Jupiter influences now stimulate those innate qualities of yours which make for success--notably self-mastery, high-minded motives, selflessness and good judgment. You should do

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20)-Stay well within your own sphere now, so as not to mislead or be misled. Be conciliatory in the face of differences, but don't compromise where sound principles are involved.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19)-Don't procrastinate in necessary tasks because of frivolous distractions and a desire for other activities. Confidential and diplomatic matters favored.

PISCES (February 20 to March 20)-Do not let another's "gift of gab" mislead you, or depend upon high-sounding promises. Study persons and situations with your usual keen perception. Then act as your best judgment dictates.

YOU BORN TODAY like the "good life"; are extremely energetic and willing to work hard for the things you want. You are independent, generous with your time on behalf of others, but are sometimes too impatient when they err. You can recoup losses quickly and, if necessary, try new ways to achieve your ends though, normally, you strive to hold on avidly to what you have. You are sensitive to others' likes and dislikes, therefore make an ideal companion. You could win great success as a stylist, designer, fashion promoter, public speaker, politician, chemist or nurse. How to Keep Well By Dr. T. R. Van Dellen

(c) 1969 By The Chicago Tribune) To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

THE AGING SKIN

People whose lives are spent outdoors not only look older than office workers, but they also are more susceptible to skin cancers. Sunlight has an aging effect, especially when the skin is bombarded by ultraviolet over a long period of time. Benjamin Franklin, an astute observer, probably was right when he remarked that you cannot tell the age of a group of women if barrels were put over their heads and shoulders.

A group of dermatologists from Houston proved that the epidermal layers were definitely harmed by daily exposure to old Sol. Damage was noticeable in oldsters but depended more on degree of exposure and extent of natural and artificial protection. Many tanning faddists do not realize that sunlight leads to dry, coarse, leathery skin that is wrinkled and dotted with various pigmented lesions. This is better understood by comparing regions exposed to light with those protected by the clothing.

Aging also alters the functions of the epidermis. The water content decreases and, for no apparent reason, may increase slightly after age 60. Resiliency is greater in the young, but the skin loses its elasticity as the years pass. There is a decreased output of sweat and the outer layers are consistently drier. Nail growth also de-

The oil (sebaceous) glands are controled by the sex and pituitary glands. Sebaceous glands increase in size during puberty and adolescence. This is partly responsible for the teen ager's oily skin and acne. In essence, the secretion drops off in women but to a lesser extent in men.

Graying of the hair begins in childhood and continues throughout life. The change is more rapid in males between 30 and 34 and females 35 to 39. The process is more marked in persons with hypertension and arteriosclerosis. The cause can be found in the hair follicle where tyrosinase activity slows down and the pigmentproducing cells become less and less active. The result is gray hair.

The 51st annual McKean County Fair begins Sunday, July 6, with a single performance of the Hoxie Brothers Three-Ring Circus at 2 p.m. Officially Fair Week starts Aug. 3, according to Vincent Bizzard, fair secretary, and president John Pytcher.

Hoxie Brothers Circus features Prince Bogino and his lions in a caged steel arena, plus two herds of performing elephants recently returned after filming a new Tarzan movie.

The yellow and orange Big Top holds 2,000 persons. Advance tickets are being sold for $1 each, but at the gate the price will be $1.50.

First event at the official opening Aug. 3 is a 7 p.m. Vesper Service conducted by area ministers. The carnival will begin at 5 p.m. Monday, Aug. 4. At 6:30 p.m. there will be a parade in downtown Smethport followed by dancing to the music of The New Reflections of Tomorrow from 7:30-8:30 p.m.

Tuesday's main attraction is the Joie Chitwood Show. The World's Largest Demolition Derby will take place Wednesday evening, after an afternoon of harness racing. The racing program, inaugurated by the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes, has over $9,000 in allocations from the state Department of Agriculture colt breeding program to be given as purses for the day's races.

BEAVERS BUSY

AURORA, III. (AP)—Beavers along Fox River are chewing tree trunks and felling trees like woodsmen, but no woodsman can discover where the beavers are taking the tree branches.

Virgil L. Gilman, director of parks and recreation for the Fox River Park District, said more than 25 trees were felled by beavers in one three-week period.

Ash trees more than a foot in diameter were cut down by the animals. They leave the tree trunks after stripping off the branches.

It's also nice to be around when it's time to retire.

You want to save a nest egg to retire on? Fine. All we suggest is that you be here to enjoy it. What to do? See your doctor for a thorough health checkup once a year, including a procto. And for women, also a Pap test. In short, the works.

Because most cancers are curable if spotted in time. But your doctor won't be able to spot anything—unless you give him the chance.

If you do, you'll improve your chances of enjoying your retirement. To a ripe old age.

CAPT. GARRETT

Surrendering Your Own Will

Have you ever concerned yourself with the question, "Who controls my will?" The writer of the book, "How I ascertain the will of God", by George Miller writes these words:

"I seek in the beginning to get my heart into such a state that it has no will of its own in regard to a given matter. Ninetenths of the trouble with people is just here. Nine-tenths of our difficulties are overcome when our hearts are ready to do the Lord's will whatever it may be. When one is truly in this state, it is usually but a little way to the knowledge of what His willis." The will of mankind has been defined as "the instrument of the mind which gives power of choosing one's own actions." The conquest now is to give the control of that instrument to God and let him determine our actions. The Holy Spirit is often resisted. "Although Almighty, he does not compel submission. Men retain, from first to last, their free-will, and in spite of the Spirit's utmost efforts they often refuse to obey his promptings" "(Ye do always resist the Holy Ghost-Acts 7:51)"

The reason why we, many times, choose our own will and say we cannot hear the voice of the Lord is because we have hardened our hearts and will not surrender. Hebrews 3:7&8 says "Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith) today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation (rebellion) in the day of temptation in the wilderness". The Holy Spirit does all it possibly can to convince mankind, That is, in addition to sending messages through God's people, through the Bible, or in other ways, the Holy Spirit Himself goes straight to men's hearts, making them feel what they ought to do and influencing them to do it. This is not just something that is made up or a Fairy tale, it is True!!!!

We, as Christians, take Christ as our supreme example. Christ, himself, surrendered his will: "My meat is to do the will of Him that sent me, and to finish His work, said the Lord". John 4:34.

Also Jesus said in the garden, "Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me, nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done." Luke 22:42

One of the general fruits of a sanctified person is a perfect and hearty agreement with the Will of God as to all we must do or suffer. "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure (Phil. 2:14). David had this feeling also: "I delight to do thy will, O my God, yea, the law is within my heart". (Psalm 40:8)

Remembering that any small missing fragment disqualifies, there are some powerful attributes which will become ours when we surrender our "whole" own will.

 You will be completely God's and continuing that unreserved consecration.

 You will live for the same purpose as the Holy Spirit does, for the Glory of God and the Kingdom's advancement.

 You will have the ability to live in complete harmony with the Holy Spirit.

4. The person (you) who has completely surrendered his own will will continually acknowledge his dependence on the Holy Spirit, giving him the glory for all that is done and through him.

A popular saying of the day is "A jack of all trades and a master of none." Let it be said that we are a jack of all trades and a master of one; that one being the mastery of giving over our "whole" own will to God.

The last words of Richard Baxter, the famous English Puritan, author of the book "The Saints' Everlasting Rest" and the man who preached as a dying man (physically) to dying men (spiritually), and never sure to preach again, were these "Lord, what thou wilt, where thou wilt, and when thou wilt."

What a wonderful feeling it is to be completely, without any reservations, in the center of God's will!!!!

When we surrender our will to God we gain entry into the divine family. Proof of this is found in Mark 3:35 when Jesus said, "For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister and mother".

In conclusion might it be said "All who are saved should and must obey the promptings of the Holy Spirit to witness for Christ and to labour for the salvation of sinners, otherwise they will be held responsible for the results of their neglect.

"Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins (James 5:20). But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand. (Ezek. 33:6)

May none of us ever be found guilty of this!!!!!

Let us make the surrender of our will COMPLETE!!!!

Creeping Socialism

HARRISBURG -- Creeping socialism is no longer a threat, nor a vague promise. It's here, festering all through Pennsylvania's fiscal proposals for 1969-70. Like the pigeon eggs that were laid in alcoves outside the capital all spring, the birds have hatched, and most are at full wing.

Privately • owned and operated nursing homes serve as an example of the trend toward the govern• ment's

There are 18,500 beds for the elderly, indigent available in approximately 330 of these homes - an average of 56 beds to a home. Last week, five of these nursing homes disclosed they are going out of business, with a net loss of more than 100 beds.

For the homes that remain in business, the State pays a subsidy of $7.90 a day, an apparently tidy $227 a month for each case. Yet at government installations, the cost per patient is budgeted at $14.50 a day (at South Mountain in Cambria County) and at $19 a day (at Western Geriatrics Center in Allegheny County). This figure does not take into account the capital investment in the State-owned buildings.

When beds are filled at the private sanitoria, the indigent are shipped off-for one example -- to Philadelphia General Hospital. There, complains the Pennsylvania Association of Nursing and Convalescent Homes, patients get the same care available at the private homes -- but at rates as high as $50 a day, and rising. The cash for that comes from a combination of State funds and Medicare money.

In looking for ways to pare prospective spending, Democrats and the Governor have agreed to delay a proposed $11 a day rate for the private nursing homes, at a projected savings to the State of $2.5 million, until next January. By that time, says RANCH, more of these homes will be forced out of business while the savings would be dissipated in paying higher rates at other institutions.

Like the parochial schools, the nursing homes -- which take the load off public institutions -- are victims of big and bigger government. While public schools operate at a cost of $464 per pupil -- again not counting capital investments-- the parochials are in line for an annual State handout of $4 per pupil.

But the classic example of creeping socialism involves funds for the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority, which since its creation in 1956 has supplied construction loans for industrial plants out of current State income.

Now an agreement is being formulated by both Democrats and Republicans in the House of Representatives whereby the money for these capital loans will be borrowed on the open money market, at -- with any kind of luck -- the going rate of 6 percent. The money will then trickle down to the industrial developer at PIDA's traditional rates of two to three-and-one-half percent.

Jackie Tried to Sell Gifts

washington.-The inside story of Jackie Kennedy and her attempting to sell gifts from foreign potentates had a ring of truth in it, as told in the Ladies Home Journal by Mrs. Mary Barelli Gallagher, Jackie's former personal secretary.

On the other hand, the statements that Jackie did not pay sufficient attention to her children lacked the ring of truth. When JFK was a Senator, Jackie could be seen on the Georgetown playgrounds with her daughter Caroline almost every day.

The temptation on the part of First Ladies to use the sometimes magnificent gifts from foreign monarchs was not confined to Jackie alone. She kept the diamond, emerald and ruby necklace given her by the President of Pakistan. valued at around $200,000, and Mrs. Eisenhower kept several beautiful gifts, one a solid gold mesh bracelet given her by the King of Saudi Arabia.

Mrs. Roosevelt was given a giant aquamarine by the government of Brazil, and at one time she asked the late Bernard Baruch to talk to Tiffany's as to whether it could be divided up into smaller pieces and sold for the benefit of her children.

After publication of her plan in this column, Mrs. R. reacted quickly. She did not go through with the sale. Some years later, when I was visiting Hyde Park, she carefully pulled out a drawer to show me that the Brazilian aquamarine was still intact.

Once when I suggested that Jackie sell her beautiful Pakistani necklace at auction in order to raise money for Washington's badly neglected orphanage, "Junior Village," she chided my wife that she knew exactly what she was going to do with the necklace. "I'll give it to you," she said.

Jackie, however, still has the necklace.

Some of the hottest parts of the fast-moving debate to continue the surtax were left out of the headlines. At one point, Rep. John Byrnes, R-Wis., who was leading Nixon's fight, hit back at charges that he opposed needed tax reforms while supporting the surtax.

"They (surtax foes) claim that unless this bill is held hostage we are not going to have any tax reform," declared Byrnes. "Do they have a scintilla of evidence to support this assertion?

Absolutely not."

"I happened to make a study of the (reform) bills filed and not a single one came from your side of the Ways and Means Committee," shot back Rep. Charles Vanik, the Cleveland Democrat.

Byrnes was indignant. His voice shook with emotion. Pointing his finger angrily at Vanik and Rep. Martha Griffiths, D-Mich., he scolded:

"I am amazed at the gentlewoman from Michigan suggesting that there is something wrong because we have not brought any (reform) proposals to a rollcall vote (in the committee). If the gentlewoman suggested a proposal I am sure the committee considered it."

Mrs. Griffiths rushed down the aisle and seized the microphone in the House well.

"Oh, sir." she began.

"I do not yield to the gentlewoman until she asks me to," interrupted Byrnes.

"Impolite!" chided Vanik.
"I yield to the gentlewoman," Byrnes changed his tune.

"I have offered any number," said Mrs. Griffiths.

"I offered to cut the oil depletion allowance 7½ per cent. And how did you vote?"

"He voted no," replied Vanik on behalf of the silent Republican.

"You voted no, and you know you voted no," emphasized Mrs. Griffiths. "Let me give you another instance. I offered to knock out the oilgas pipeline exemption."

She referred to a special exemption that would have saved pipeline companies millions in taxes, had they been excluded in the repeal of the 7 per cent investment credit. "How did you vote?" she asked. "You voted no."

"The gentlewoman knows that the amendments she offered were amendments to this surtax bill and were not offered as part of the reform package," alibied Byrnes.

were germane to this bill," replied the lady from Michigan. "I offered the amendment to cut off the oil and gas pipelines; this was germane, and this would have saved some money. We are creating a tax loophole."

into an argument or a discussion with a lady, because it is quite apparent that you cannot win, concluded the leader of the GOP tax forces.

President Nixon has told friends that he is determined not only to pull out of Vietnam but not to get involved in another Vietnam. We have become so bogged down in Vietnam that we have been unable to respond to threats elsewhere in the Far East, he says.

Nixon would like to build up a reserve striking force in the Pacific that would be ready to react at once to a crisis. As the first step, he intends to restore the combat forces that used to be stationed in Okinawa and Hawaii. The troops being withdrawn from Vietnam will probably be kept on a stand-by basis in Okinawa and Hawaii. This doesn't mean Nixon intends to use them at random. He doesn't want to get drawn into any more Vietnams and has notified the Thais that they should expect to defend their own country from Communist infiltration.

ART BUCHWALD

When Nixon Changed His Mind

WASHINGTON -- The question that still has Washington puzzled is: When did President Nixon change his mind about appointing Dr. John H. Knowles to a post in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare? At the beginning of the week, it looked like a sure thing that Dr. Knowles was in. But at the end of the week the appointment was shot out of the water.

I can now report what happened.

Buchwald

Wednesday night, the New Nixon was getting ready to go to bed when the Old Nixon stepped out of the closet.

The New Nixon was startled.

"What are you doing here? I thought you had gone long ago."

"I've just been hiding in the closet, waiting for a chance to get out."

"Well, what do you want?" the New Nixon asked nervously. "I don't want you to appoint Dr. Knowles to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare."

"It's too late," the New Nixon said. "I've already told Bob he wanted in the job."

"You fool," the Old Nixon snarled. "Do you want to alienate every conservative Re-

Finch he could have any man

publican in the country?"

"I don't care," the New Nixon said indignantly. "Bob Finch is my friend. Do you know what I'd do to him if I reneged on Knowles' appointment now?"

"Dicky boy," the Old Nixon said, "you can't let loyalty or friendship get into this. You have to think of your legislative program. You need all the conservative votes you can get, and you're not going to get them by putting Knowles into HEW."

"It's too late," the New Nixon cried. "Finch has practically announced Knowles' appointment, and I said I'd back anybody he wanted. I can't double-cross him just to get the surtax and ABM programs through."

"Why not?" the Old Nixon shouted.

"Please lower your voice," the New Nixon said.

"Listen to me. This is a question of priorities," the Old Nixon said. "You're going to have to make up your mind which comes first, the country or the Republican Party."

"I wish you hadn't put it in those terms."

The Old Nixon said, "the American Medical Assn. is the biggest contributor to the Republican Party. They've already said they won't come through with the money in 1970 if you put Knowles in. Isn't that enough for you?"

"Oh, this is terrible," the New Nixon said. "Why do all these decisions come to me?" "Because you're the President of the United States, and you have to call them as Sen. Everett Dirksen sees them."

"But what about my image?
Ever since the election, people think I'm fair, honest, loyal and a middle-of-the-roader. How can I change that image overnight?"

"Try," the Old Nixon said.

"OK. I'll call Finch now and break the news to him."

"Good boy, Dick. I knew you'd see it my way. But whatever you do, keep my name out of

"Where are you going?"
"Back into the closet," the Old Nixon said. "But I'll be here whenever you need me."
